

NEGRO MAID'S STORY IS TOUGH ON MRS. CARMAN

Celia Coleman Tells Trial Jury That Mrs. Carman Confessed to Her.

STAR WITNESS ON STAND

Describes Incidents and Relates Conversation Just after the Shooting.

MINEOLA, La., Oct. 21.—Celia Coleman, negro maid in the Carman household and star witness for the state, testified today at the trial of Mrs. Florence Carman, accused of the murder of Mrs. Louise Bailey, that Mrs. Carman had appeared in the room, a moment after Mrs. Bailey had been shot and said "I shot him". Celia thought Mrs. Carman referred to her husband Dr. Carman.

"The next morning about daylight Mrs. Carman came to my room," Celia continued. "She said 'O, Celia, what did I kill that woman for? I hope God will forgive me. You stick to me and if anything happens to you I will take care of your little boy.'"

Under the questioning of the district attorney Celia told her story as follows:

"I am from Charleston, S. C. I went to work at Dr. Carman's May 18, 1914. On the night of June 30, I served dinner at 6:45 o'clock. After dinner I started to wash the dishes. "While I was washing the dishes, Elizabeth, Mrs. Carman's daughter, came into the kitchen. Soon after, Mrs. Carman came in. She was dressed in a kimono and had a shawl around her neck. She told Elizabeth to go into the house. Then Mrs. Carman went out the back door. A minute later I heard a crash of glass and the report of a pistol. Mrs. Carman came in the door again.

"I was standing at the door between the pantry and the kitchen. She said to me 'I shot him'. Then she showed me a black revolver that was about nine inches long. I grabbed her by the arm and told her not to go into the office. She said she was not going to do anything else. Then I went into the office.

"The body of a dead white woman was lying on the floor. Mrs. Carman followed me into the office. She stayed there about half a minute and then went out to the waiting room. Dr. Carman was there and so was another man. I went into the kitchen and returned to the office in about a minute. Mrs. Carman was there. I went back into the kitchen, finished washing the dishes and went to my room and went to sleep. The next morning about daylight Mrs. Carman came to my room. She was alone. She said to me 'I shot him'. Then she showed me a black revolver that was about nine inches long. I grabbed her by the arm and told her not to go into the office. She said she was not going to do anything else. Then I went into the office.

WESTON

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE)
WESTON, Oct. 21.—Tuesday night was "Old Soldiers' night" at the tabernacle, and a number of veterans were in evidence, as were a number of Sons of Veterans, who came in a body. Three old veterans were among the eighty-one persons who came down the sawdust trail, and there were other persons of prominence, including the superintendent of the city schools, a deputy sheriff and others.

W. A. Crawford, of Cottageville, Jackson county, was in this city Tuesday preparing to go to Cushing, Okla., murdered on the 28th ultimo. The young man comes of a prominent Lewis county family, his grandfather being Noah Crawford, a well known old soldier residing at Vandalia. An Oklahoma newspaper says that the murder was committed by some unknown person, by the use of a piece of iron or other heavy metal, and that the object, since the victim was known to have made important collections of money on that day.

Doctor Hamilton, the evangelist, will make the formal address at the presentation of Friday afternoon of a flag to the city schools, and Superintendent Yoke and President Frank Jarvis of the board will make formal addresses of acceptance. Then the board will present the high school a pennant, and Principal Kraus will formally accept that. More than a thousand school children will be present to sing patriotic airs.

The young men of the community, largely first voters, organized a Republican club at the party's headquarters here Monday night. Sixty persons participated. The Young Men's Republican Club has elected as its president Thomas J. Gilfooley, and A. O. Duncan is vice president. William Stathers is secretary. John W. Farnsworth, treasurer, and J. M. Henry is the marshal.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. P. Maxson of Morgantown, are visiting relatives here.

The Rev. Earle A. Brooks, pastor of the local Presbyterian church, was called to French creek, Upshur county, a day or two ago on account of the illness of his mother, who resides there.

The Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Butler, of Camden, left Monday for their new home at Buckhannon. The annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church removed Mr. Butler to a pastorate at Alexandria.

The Rev. H. B. Lee has returned from Clarksburg, where he conducted services at the Protestant Episcopal church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Hatzel and Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Spriggs left the last of the week to make the trip to Florida by automobile. They will not return until spring. Mr. Hatzel is the Progressive party nominee for member of the House of Delegates, but it seems that he has forgotten about it.

TRAGEDY AND ROMANCE OF THE CARMAN CASE LEND TRIAL AN ABSORBING INTEREST; WOMEN, MYSTERY AND LOVE ALL IN STORY

Mrs. Florence Carman (left), Prosecuting Attorney Smith, Mrs. Louise Bailey, and courtroom where Mrs. Carman is being tried.

The elements of tragedy and romance in the Carman murder case, now being tried at Mineola, L. I., lend the trial an absorbing interest. There is mystery, love, jealousy, suspicion, and perhaps hatred. Little more could be added to increase the interest that centers about this famous trial.

STILL FIGHTING BACK AND FORTH ON A LINE

WARRANTS DISMISSED

Against Foreigners Charged with Hunting on the Sabbath Day.

Warrants charging Christopher Saracino and Gore Bosella with hunting on the Sabbath day were dismissed late Tuesday afternoon in Justice Jackson V. Carter's court, when Benjamin J. Bartlett, prosecuting witness, failed to prove the charges he made in the warrants.

It appears that the two foreigners were out enjoying a quiet peaceful walk last Sunday afternoon on a hillside near Mt. Clare when they were arrested by constable Bartlett who charged them with hunting. It was proven at the hearing Tuesday afternoon that neither man had a gun or even a dog with him and as it is customary in this country when a man goes out hunting to take a gun or dog along with him the justice dismissed the warrants.

REDD CAPTURED

At Cannonsburg as One Who Escaped from Road Gang of This County.

Thomas Redd, sentenced to the roads thirty days at the March term of the criminal court for petit larceny, but who escaped from the road gang nine days before the expiration of his term, is in jail here again, resulting from a reward of $25 offered by the sheriff for his capture. S. H. Swan, detective for the Pittsburg Railway Company, recognized him from a description sent out and arrested him at Cannonsburg, Pa. The sheriff was notified and Leo P. Caulfield, deputy sheriff, brought Redd back from Cannonsburg Tuesday night. He will be given a hearing in a few days for escaping.

What progress, if any has been made by either side in the vicinity of Ostend, is not disclosed in the latest Paris official communication which contented itself with saying that the Belgians are resisting attacks along the Yser.

Violent German onslaughts at where, in the afternoon Senator Goff will make his second speech of his tour. An immense meeting is expected to be the result of his visit to the county seat of Preston.

Tuesday night, October 27, Senator Goff will speak at Wheeling; Wednesday night at Parkersburg; Thursday afternoon at Middlebourne; Friday night at Huntington; Saturday night at Charleston; and Monday, November 2, at either Oak Hill, Bluefield or Clarksburg.

The local committees in the cities and towns to be visited by the distinguished West Virginian are all ready at work on plans for their respective meetings. They are being widely advertised, and the announcement of the coming of Senator Goff has created the greatest enthusiasm for those communities for some time over a forthcoming political event, according to reports received here.

Sensor Goff's tour through the state is expected to be a triumphant one and to be the means of tipping the scales in many close local contests toward the candidates of his party.

After the Martinsburg meeting, Senator Goff, accompanied by Secretary Eugene McDermott, will go to Clarksburg to spend Sunday. From there they will go to Kingwood.

HIGGINS IN JAIL

William Higgins is a prisoner in the city jail, awaiting trial before Mayor Will H. Cole in police court tomorrow morning on a charge of being drunk. He was arrested in Pike street early this morning by Officers Joyce and Shahan.

PARIS, Oct. 21.—The French official communication given out this afternoon says that the attacks of the enemy on Nieuport, Dixmunde and Basse were all repulsed by the allies. The communication follows:

"During the day of yesterday the attacks of the enemy were particularly violent at Nieuport, Dixmunde and Basse. They were all repulsed by the allies with great energy. At all other points the situation is unchanged."

HOTELS HIT

Hard in the City of London by the Great War Struggle in Europe.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
LONDON, Oct. 21.—The ousting of Germans and Austrians and the call to the colors of French, Swiss and Italians has shown to an extent little suspected by the British public how departments of the hotel and restaurant business, barbeque and even teaching had been taken over by foreigners. At the outbreak of the war 10,000 foreign waiters alone quit their jobs in London.

Foreign teachers left thousands of vacancies in Great Britain. They were mostly private teachers or employed in private schools. Those in the regular English schools were teachers of languages as a rule, but not always.
